ALBURY WODONGA HEALTH

GP Registrar – Obstetrics Trainee

Full Time, Fixed Term Contract
2019 Clinical Year

An opportunity exists for a twelve month appointment for GP Registrar – Obstetrics Trainee. The role of the GP Registrar-Obstetrics is to develop, consolidate and enhance clinical skills in the provision of high quality patient care.

The GP registrar will be allocated a GP supervisor and a Specialist supervisor to coordinate their training. For day to day activities the GP registrar will be supervised by the GP Obstetric and Specialist Obstetric providers of the day.

Albury Wodonga has one of Australia’s largest inland populations and provides an excellent lifestyle with a wide variety of sporting and recreational activities. The catchment population for Obstetrics & Gynaecology is 250,000. There are two specialist registrars attached to the unit.

Successful applicants will be required to complete appropriate paperwork for AWH to meet its credentialing obligations. The trainee would need to be eligible for RACGP or ACRRM Pathway.

Closing date: 20/05/2018 (for 2019 Clinical Year)

How to apply - Please complete the Registrar 2019 Application form and submit this, along with a covering letter and supporting documentation to liz.caunt@awh.org.au
